

A MESSAGE FROM DIAMOND AIRPORT PARKING ANCHORAGE

In response to the international calls to ease the spread of the novel Coronavirus (COVID-19), we are working to keep each other safe at this time.

All Diamond Airport Parking facilities are supporting these efforts, with protocols like limiting onsite staff, increasing disinfecting protocols, and encouraging low- or no-touch transactions.

Should You Require Travel

Our lots are open and reservations are being accepted.

Our shuttles are operating on call. Use these numbers to call or text for a shuttle driver to take you to or from the terminal:

Call: 907.677.7275 Text: 907.891.8683

Should You Rebook Travel

We will happily reschedule your reservation, with no fee.

If you booked using a promo code, we will honor that rate, even if your rescheduled travel falls outside the promotional dates.

What We're Doing

Our lots are operational. We have deployed limited staffing to support reduced interaction.

Our teams are employing proper social distancing.

Hand sanitizer is available and in use in our shuttles and facilities.

We are frequently sanitizing high touch areas (buttons, door handles, etc).

All staff are employing best-practice hand washing techniques.

Any staff who feels ill or is at risk is at home.

All Of Us, United

You may experience a delay in our service as we navigate changes coming from our local, state and national sources.

We are in this together; thank you for your understanding, patience, and cooperation.
